Canada Research Chair Seminar Series:

Seminar 12: Engagement of Patients and Caregivers in Patient-Oriented Health Research: Insights Gained from the McMaster University, Aging, Community and Health Research Unit

Thursday, March 1, 2018

11:30 am - 12:30 pm Eastern time (refreshments will be available)

Location: Room  MDCL 3022

Virtual/on-line via WebEx  -click here  join the meeting

Objectives:
- To provide an overview of patient engagement and research
- To provide examples of insights gained through the engagement of patients and caregivers in ACHRU
- To discuss how we have applied these insights to expand this field of research

Presenters:
Maureen Markle-Reid
Associate Professor, School of Nursing, McMaster University
Co-Scientific Director, Aging, Community and Health Research Unit

Jenny Ploeg
Professor, School of Nursing, McMaster University
Co-Scientific Director, Aging, Community and Health Research Unit

Brenda Smith, Caregiver/ Researcher Partner

Please RSVP to Joanne Leeming:
At (905) 525-9140 ext. 20378 or by email at leeminj@mcmaster.ca

Canada Research Chair in Aging, Chronic Disease and Health Promotion Interventions website: http://chru.mcmaster.ca